

News English II Monday at 10:00

bounce back, end up, socialize, reimburse, get the hang of, asset, minimize, nag, be relative, slip through someone's fingers, resent, gutsy, aspire, preferential, hurdle, jump at the chance, unconditionally, naive, impartial, pursue

My friend is _____. I know he would _____ to go swimming with sharks.

I _____ it when my girlfriend _____ me for not taking her out more often.

I think it is _____ to trust the government _____.

I feel very sick now but after a good night's rest I should _____.

I think my house is the most beautiful in the neighborhood but I know that beauty _____.

One way to _____ the risk of catching Covid-19 is not to
_____.

I took the wrong train so I _____ wasting a lot of time.

My friend _____ to be a K-pop star. She _____ her dream passionately and won't let any _____ get in the way of success.

It took me a while to _____ of teaching online but I am confident now.

It's wrong for teachers to give _____ treatment to students.
They need to be _____.

Some students want Mokwon to _____ part of their tuition because classes are online.

A person's home is usually their biggest _____.

My friend wanted to quit school because of the pandemic but I warned him not to be rash. He is a senior and I told him not to let his degree
_____.

News English II Monday at 10:00.

Pick 5 and use them in sentences to show me you understand their meaning.

essentially

bully

standard of living enhance can't wait to let loose

Pick 5 and answer them in 2 to 3 sentences.

When have you experienced a slap in the face?

Why didn't you sit out this semester?

What article didn't interest you?

What would you like to bring to the attention of Mokwon's president?

What news item have you discussed recently with your family?

Who would you like to know better: Su-jin (North Korean defector), Park Jee-hye (Golden Dream) or Ma Yeong-shin's mother.