

disgusted, be set to, trend, spontaneous, long for, back down, call into question, heartening, face, con, boom, meticulous, momentum, come down to, feel free to, for the sake of, distressing, implement, conundrum, keep up with

- 1 We must wear masks for the sake of public health.
- 2 Technological change happens so fast that it is hard to keep up with it.
- 3 I am set to graduate soon, so I am looking for a job.
- 4 I was disgusted that my classmate was able to con the teacher into believing that he had done all the work by himself.
- 5 There has been a boom in mask sales.
- 6 I long for the day when I can go outside without a mask.
- 7 My brother is a meticulous planner. He is never spontaneous.
- 8 I find arguing to be distressing, so instead of demanding what I want, I usually back down.
- 9 I love having my own apartment because I feel free to do whatever I want.
- 10 The trend towards quitting smoking is heartening. We must keep the momentum going.
- 11 When people say one thing but do another, it calls into question their integrity.
- 12 It is easy to make plans to help the environment, but not so easy to implement them.
- 13 I think success comes down to hard work and a little luck.
- 14 How to balance economic growth with environmental protection is the conundrum we face now.

Pick 10 and answer in 2 or 3 sentences.

What hasn't been a piece of cake?

Which one of the articles we read in class taught you the most?

What is long over due?

What sacrifices are you willing to make to help the environment?

What should be banned?

Have you ever been conned?

What do you do when you are swamped with work?

What tip would you give a North Korean defector?

When have you felt disgusted by someone's behavior?

What can't you wait to do this winter vacation?

What is going to be your priority for 2012?