

exaggerate, groggy, glut, second nature, tense, defensive, take a toll on, handy, honestly, account for, keep in mind, go overboard, stick to, gravitate towards, open up doors, get out of hand, rehash, inconsiderate, recall, bomb, snooze, be fed up with, arrogant, conceivable, sympathetic,

- ① It's a good idea to stick to the plan. If you don't follow the plan, things can get out of hand fast.
- 2 My friend often exaggerates, so it's difficult to know if what he says is true.
- 3 My friend didn't study, so he bombed the test.
- 4 Honestly, I never listen to a word he says: lying is second nature to him.
- 5 There seems to be a glut of coffee shops. I wonder how they all stay in business.
- 6 My cell phone is incredibly handy. I can do so many things with it.
- 7 My friend drives everyone crazy when he rehashes old arguments. We are fed up with him.
- 8 Things are tense between Mr. Kim and Mr. Lee. I hope there isn't a fight.
- 9 Since I started working at night, I feel groggy all the time. Working the night shift has taken a toll on my quality of life.
- 10 My friend becomes defensive when I criticize his bad cooking.
- 11 My cousin is so arrogant. He thinks he is special because he graduated from Harvard.
- 12 My brother and I went overboard for our parents' wedding anniversary. We invited 100 guests to a fancy restaurant.
- 13 I don't know what accounts for his very strange behavior.

- 14 It's conceivable that people can live on the Moon but it's going to take a lot of effort.
- 15 After a heavy lunch, I sometimes take a snooze.
- 16 Please keep in mind that you must wear a mask on public transportation.
- 17 It's easy for me to recognize faces but it hard for me to recall names.
- 18 It's hard to be sympathetic to people who are inconsiderate of other people's feelings.
- 19 It's true that graduating from a SKY university can open up doors.
- 20 People usually gravitate towards those they share something in common.

Please answer in 2 to 3 sentences.

When don't you want people to be straight forward with you?

Which one of the articles (not the in textbook) taught you the most?

What kind of people do you seek out?

What class at Mokwon has not been worth it?

When have you felt pushed to the brink?

What is crucial for your well-being?

Is it better to be audacious or prudent?

When were you out of luck?

What has this class made you more curious about?

What should I keep in mind when I prepare your grade?