Trattoria Romana

★★★★

Som

Trattoria Romana is an excellent Italian restaurant. It has a quiet and relaxing atmosphere, and the service is very good. It's always crowded, so make a reservation early. The menu is not very big. There are only four entrees on the menu, but everything is fresh. The chicken with pasta is wonderful. Desserts are their specialty – rich and delicious! It's a little expensive but very good. You'll spend about $25 per person.

DYNASTY

★★

Last Saturday, I was the only customer at Dynasty, a new diner on 57th Street. It's not a good place to go. The waiters are slow and unfriendly. The atmosphere is boring, and so is the menu. It specializes in American food – mostly steak and potatoes; but my steak was raw, and the fries were greasy. It isn't cheap, either. It cost me $22. If you go to Dynasty, you certainly won't need a reservation. My advice, however, is "Don't Go."

Beirut cafe

★★★

Beirut Cafe is a great new Lebanese restaurant. The specialty is meze – lots of different small dishes, some with meat or fish, others with vegetables. The atmosphere is lively, and the service is very friendly. There's live Lebanese music and dancing on weekends. Beirut Cafe is surprisingly inexpensive – about $18 a person, but you need to make a reservation.
