

Complete these sentences with the correct idiom(s)

1. I'm a bookaholic, so I love to read as much as I can.
2. These days a lot of people use bitcoin to pay for something.
3. He was a newbie, so he still had a lot to learn.
4. My friend's a real fashionista. She always buys the latest brands of clothing.
5. "Self-isolation" is an example of a new buzzword.
6. President Trump used to tweet messages all the time.
7. A flash mob started up and sang a song at the train station.
8. People should avoid manspreading when they're on the subway. It's very rude.
9. My friends and I went glamping in the countryside. We took a microwave oven, small TV, and a portable generator.
10. Netizens need to be very careful when they're posting comments on the internet. It's really bad netiquette to cyberbully other people. (3 idioms)
11. Brexit was the agreement where Great Britain left the European Union(EU).
12. Sometimes I need some me time, because I'm so stressed out.
13. Don't be a hater and always criticize other people.
14. I listened to an English podcast the other day.
15. I thought he was a real person, but he was only catfishing me.
16. A lot of young people suffer from affluenza. They can't stop buying luxury goods.

- a. buzzword
- b. catfishing
- c. cyberbully
- d. fashionista
- e. glamping
- f. netiquette
- g. newbie
- h. affluenza
- i. flash mob
- j. me time
- k. hater
- l. manspreading
- m. bitcoin
- n. brexit
- o. netizens

Write the meanings for these idioms

(businessexpressions.blogspot.com....check older posts too/bottom right)

1. to surge (to increase sharply)
2. missing the point (not understanding the problem)
3. battered by (hurt seriously by) (storm)
4. catchy (memorable/appealing) (song)
5. ground rules (basic rules)
6. skimpy (small in quantity)
7. make strides (make progress)
8. to draw the line (to set limits on)
9. dicey (risky)
10. to gripe (to complain)
11. to stay upbeat (to be optimistic)
12. perks (benefits)
13. type A personalities (outgoing people)
14. to tune out (to ignore)
15. pricey (expensive)