

See page 7 and use to/ing to write sentences using the following verbs:

prefer

be ready

intend

enjoy

See page 15 and write cleft sentences with what using the following:

I like to go out to dinner on Friday nights.

I really dislike noisy places.

I need to get a job.

See page 19 and use indefinite and definite articles.

----- best thing about ----- cell phones is their convenience.

----- gorillas can be trained to use ----- sign language.

If wonder if ----- gorilla can be trained to use ----- cell phone.

See page 23 and write ing clauses.

I bought a new car. I took my friends for a ride.

My mother finished cooking dinner. My mother called us to the table.

I am very tall. I sometimes have trouble finding pants.

See page 29 and write reporting clauses using the following:

money

time

love

Answer the following questions in detail.

Who do you rely on when you feel down?

When has a friend annoyed you?

Describe your style in clothes.

What are you grateful for?

Is it conceivable to live with COVID-19?

Why do some people believe in superstitions?

Is cloning unethical?

Do you listen to naysayers?

When have you had to play your cards close to your chest?

What has been the most interesting thing you have learned this semester?